Official Little League Schedule to Open With Game Wed., June 20

Opening of Antioch official schedule for the Little League baseball season will be next Wednesday, June 20, with two games. The first game which will see the Cubs pitted against the Tigers will open at 5:15. The nightcap will feature the Giants and the Sox in action.

Other games this week will feature the Dodgers and Yanks and the Cubs vs. the Glantons next Sunday afternoon with the first game starting at 1 o'clock. Two games will be played on Wednesday, June 27, at 5:15. The Dodgers will tangle with the Tigers and the Yanks will oppose the Sox.

Director Wolfenbarger gave notice this week that all boys who will participate must get their uniforms this week, and also urged that all fathers of the players bring their lawnmowers to the field to get it into shape for the first game. He added that all boys who have not reported for practice must also do so during this week if they wish to take part in the league games.

Not Too Great Shortage Of Beef in Local Stores

Antioch hasn't been as badly affected yet by the price ceiling on beef as has other parts of Lake County, particularly Waukegan where that kind of meat has almost disappeared from the stores.

While there isn't an abundance of beef on the local counters, there has been a reasonably good variety in most of the stores this week.

The only situation that might approach a shortage is the fact that the Antioch Packing Co. shop has been closed for the past week during the process of remodeling but it will be opened Monday with its generally full line.

Chicago stock yards are receiving very little cattle from shippers who are protesting the cutback in prices. The packers are echoing the protest and are selling but little beef. Pork is still plentiful everywhere.

In some places beef is entering the black market.

Edward P. Cranley Opens Office as Civil Engineer

Edward P. Cranley, who has been a resident of this community for the past five years, has opened an office in Antioch for the practice of civil engineering. The office is in the same building with Mayor Jim McMillen near the Antioch Lumber and Coal Company yard on Railroad Avenue.

Mr. Cranley is a graduate Civil Engineer, has a professional engineer's license and has had more than of building construction, surveying fifteen years experience in the fields and other branches of civil engineering. He hopes to be able to solve any problems in these fields that may be presented to him by the people of Antioch and the surrounding district.

Tryout for Cardinals Next Monday, Tuesday At Park in Joliet, Ill.

JOLIET, ILLINOIS.—The St. Louis Cardinals will provide the first step on the long road to the Major Leagues for young hopefuls when they conduct their tryout camp at Washington Park in Joliet on June 18-19.

Veteran Red Bird scouts Jack Sturdy and Tony Kaufman will watch the young prospects go through their paces each day starting at 11:00 o'clock and going until about 3 o'clock each afternoon. The scouts will look for the three qualities which all big leaguers must have to qualify for the big show—throwing, batting and base-running.

The boys who show that they have these assets will be signed to one of the fifteen teams in the famous Cardinal farm system, where they will develop and improve under the wisened hands of veteran coaches, ex-Major Leaguers themselves.

All those who plan on taking advantage of this opportunity to see if they are qualified for professional baseball are reminded to bring their own gloves, uniforms and shoes. Any expenses incident to attending the camp will be refunded all players who are signed by the scouts to a contract with the Cardinals.

Ingleside Youth Hurt Beneath Fallen Horse

An Ingleside youth listed as Ray Pavlenko, 13, escaped with bruises when a horse he was riding fell backward on him at the Bristol stables on Rte. 59 about 4:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The animal was said to have reared and then toppled over with the youngster underneath.

Members of the Antioch Rescue squad gave first aid and said he rallied from a slight concussion before they took him to Dr. L. L. Cagan at Spring Grove for treatment.

Most noticeable of the injuries was a badly swollen and black eye.

He had good support while the Antioch support was weak.

Warns Against Illegal Use of Fireworks and Shipments by Express

With the Fourth of July still a month away, Frank H. Woods, Jr., president of the Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness, warned that dangerous and illegal fireworks have already resulted in ten accidents in Illinois with eight of these causing serious damage to the eyes of children.

Supervised public displays are possible in every community and are entirely within the letter of the law. The law provides that permits in advance and that the supervised display shall be handled by competent persons designated by local authorities.

Woods stressed that the "sale, use or explosion" of fireworks except under supervised display is absolutely prohibited by Illinois law. The law defines fireworks as any items which produce an audible effect by explosion, deflagration or detonation. These include blank cartridges, toy cannons in which explosives are used, balloons which require fire underneath to propel them, firecrackers, torpedoes, sky-rockets, roman candles bombs, etc. The only items which the law permits are sparklers and devices in which paper caps are used which contain twenty-five hundredths grains or less of explosive compound. Penalties are fines of $100 and/or 90 days in jail.

Unfortunately some children are ordering dangerous and illegal fireworks by mail. These are shipped to them by express. Woods urged parents to keep their children from breaking the law and to keep them safe from injuries which might even cost their lives.

Last year illegal fireworks accounted for 245 accidents throughout the state. Two children died and forty had serious eye injuries with six resulting in loss of vision in one eye.

Soo Line Train Christened The Laker, Starts Shorter Schedule Through Antioch

Mr. G. A. MacNamara, President, Soo Line R. R., speaking at a luncheon Duluth recently attended by several hundred Head-of-the-Lakes business and industrial leaders announced a shorter schedule, effective June 3, for the company's Duluth-Superior-Chicago passenger service.

He said the train was being equipped with Pullman sleeping cars containing bedrooms and roomettes; that a full dining-club lounge car is a special feature of new equipment added to the train. It is the answer to wishes of travelers from this city and territory going to eastern points, and to Chicago, Milwaukee and Southern Wisconsin cities. The car will serve meals, lunches and beverages.

Mr. MacNamara also announced that the train being christened "The Laker" (it was formerly known simply as No. 17 and 18.) He said it was felt the name was significant of the territory traversed by the train which terminates in important cities on two of the Great Lakes: Duluth-Superior (The Twin Ports—the greatest inland harbor in the world) on Lake Superior, and Chicago (the nation's second-largest city) on Lake Michigan. Likewise, the train, in its daily run between these terminals skirts the shores of dozens of lakes; large and small, through one of the most picturesque lake regions in America.

Three Racine Youths Arrested for Stealing Gasoline, Sent Home

Police Chief Walter I. Scott picked up three Racine, Wis. youths Monday night for stealing gasoline and on Tuesday afternoon turned them over to Racine police who wanted them as runaways and for other offenses.

The boys were Howard Green, 16, of 1414 Blaine ave.; Jack Spang, 15, of 1501 Grange ave.; Ronald Jung, 15, of 1322 Blaine ave.

They had run away to Northern Mich. where they bought a 1936 Ford car and were making their way about the country. Here they were seen emptying hose from filling stations and syphoning gasoline from a private car.

Chief Scott followed them to a point west of the village on Rte. 173 where he made the arrest and brought them to jail at 11 p.m. He found syphoning tubes in their possession and they readily admitted their offenses.

Racine police asked Chief Scott to hold them as runaways until they came. Two of the boys have been in trouble before as members of a Racine gang.

Students Asking Military Deferment Told to Have Colleges Send Certificates

Students seeking deferment from military service on the basis of scholastic standing should ask their colleges to send the necessary certificate to their local boards without delay, Col. Paul G. Armstrong, State Selective Service Director, announced yesterday. It is the individuals student's responsibility to see that his board receives the certificate.

Forms are available at all local boards, Col. Armstrong said, emphasizing that since they must be prepared in triplicate each student should obtain three copies and deliver them to his college to be filled out. The certificate, known as SSS Form No. 19, is the only document local boards will accept as evidence of scholastic standing. In the Chicago area, the forms are available at many colleges and universities as well as through local boards. Downstate, an institution may ask the nearest local board for enough forms to take care of its own students.

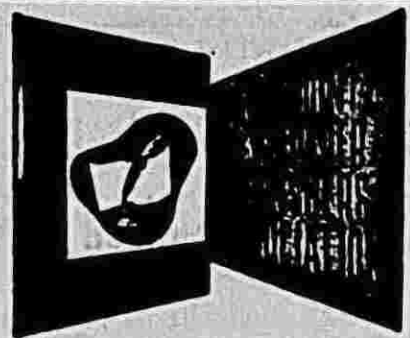

The completed certificate will be mailed by the college direct to the student's local board, Col. Armstrong said. The board's decision on granting a deferment may be on or after the score made on the Selective Service College Qualification Test. When such information is received, the board will classify the student, but in no case may action be delayed after August 20.

Students transferring from one institution to another must have their certificate filled out by both institutions.

The "Real Cost" Of Meat

For some reason, there seems to be more talk about the price of meat than almost anything else. A great many people are honestly under the impression that meat prices are simply out of all reason, even after giving due consideration to the general inflation.

Well here are some facts which will help to correct that idea.

Meat prices, as everyone knows, are higher now than they were 25 or 50 years ago. So are the prices of practically everything else. But meat prices believe it or not, have not increased as much as wages since 1901 or 1926. In other words, the "real cost" of meat—that is, the amount of working time a man must put in to buy it—is actually less than it used to be.

The concrete statistics are illuminating. In 1901 it took 32 minutes of work to buy a pound of meat. It took 37 minutes in 1926. It now takes 32 minutes. Putting the matter another way, to buy a week's supply of meat for one person required 2.5 hours of work in 1901, 1.6 hours in 1926, and the present figure is 1.5 hours.

All consumers naturally want meat prices to come down. Some argue that government controls should be used to roll the prices back to those of an arbitrary past date. Unfortunately, a price which is too low to allow producers a reasonable profit can result in only one thing—production cut-backs and scarcity. More and more of the available supply flows into the black market where the few buy at exorbitant prices and the racketeers get rich, but all the other general run of consumers do without.

Stabilization of meat prices, like all other prices, can only be accomplished through adequate production. All the controls in the world can't do away with that truism.

Object Lesson

"Great oaks from little acorns grow" says the old adage. That applies perfectly to socialized electric power projects.

Take the Southeastern Power Administration, for instance. As these bodies go, it is an infant, not to be compared with such huge examples of the super-state as TVA. But it is looking forward to quite a future.

Here's what the Richmond, Virginia, News Leader had to say recently: "The SEPA is an object lesson in bureaucracy, how it comes to be, how it digs in, how it grows. An Act of Congress fathered it. The Secretary of Interior simply created it, one day in March, 1930, from a rib of the TVA. . . . In 1950 it had four employees; this year it has 27; next year it will have 50. In 1950 it spent $55,000; this year it will spend $300,000; next year it proposes to spend $6,350,000. Three public power projects already are operating in the 10-State domain of SEPA. Four others are to begin spinning within the next two years. Twenty-two others have been authorized. Maps have been drawn for a basic transmission network to be tied in with more than 400 REA cooperatives and public bodies. A scheme is taking shape to link together a dozen municipally owned steam plants in North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia to work in integrated fashion with the hydroelectric facilities of the SEPA."

Revealing insight into SEPA was gained when, last February, a Congressman asked its administrator to estimate the total cost of all its plans and projects. Here was the answer: "The total estimate to the government, just a wild guess, is three to four billion dollars. . . . Three, four, five, I think that is as near as we could guess."

There you have it. If the SEPA forces have their way, this agency will, in time, dominate a whole great region—precisely as TVA dominates its region. Nobody, it is clear, has the slightest idea of what SEPA might cost, and nobody seems to care—after all, it's the taxpayers who must foot the bill. And, in the process, state socialism will make another great step forward.

To quote the News Leader once more, "Socialism comes mighty easy—the other smells so sweet—but the post-operative sickness may prove more that the patient can survive."

Accidents To Infants

The most frequent fatal accidents to infants are those caused by the swallowing of foreign objects—nipples, pacifiers, safety pins, buttons, marbles, or other things left within the baby's reach, and from asphyxia caused by the regurgitation of milk and other liquid foods.

Industrial Foot Note

Forty years ago the expectation of life at birth among the industrial policyholders of the Metropolitan Insurance company was about 6½ years less than in the general population of the United States. Today the figures are practically the same for both groups.

Death Among Women

About 30,000 American girls and women lose their lives in accidents each year, which is a higher toll than from any other cause of death except the cardiovascular renal diseases or cancer. During the childhood and adolescent years, accidents are the greatest single threat to life for females.

Contrary To Opinions

American boys entering employment at age 18 have 66 chances in 100 living to the retirement age of 65. For their grandfathers who started work around the turn of the century the chances of attaining age 65 were only 51 in 100.

POWER- PACKED

- and then some!

THERE are a lot of reasons you can expect a new GMC to keep hauling a lot longer than any other truck you can buy.

First is the fact of horsepower. Whether it's a gasoline-powered ½- to 2-tonner with horsepower unbeaten in its class, or one of the new heavy-duty Diesels—you can't beat a GMC for "go"!

But the extra value you find in these great trucks doesn't end at the power plant.

There's the smooth GMC Synchro-Mesh Transmission linked to a sharp-shooting drive line, pouring every ounce of power back to the rugged rear axle. And the solid way horsepower becomes wheel-action—you know there's extra depth of truck performance engineered right down through the broad-shouldered frame of a GMC!

And standing guard over these long-time trucks are husky brakes with more area than most—the surest, easiest steering ever devised to direct a pay load home—all controlled from a spacious "Six-Footer" Cab that's Weathersealed for a lifetime.

GMC's are made in the widest variety of engine-body-chassis combinations to meet any trucking need. And the prices? No better buy anywhere! Come see for yourself.

Library Notes

At this time of the year, we are apt to take a really critical look at our homes and decide that what's needed is a touch of bright new color. "How to Make Draperies and Slipcovers" is designated to help you with this problem and to give you satisfaction of creation economically. "How to Make Draperies and Slipcovers" was presented to the Antioch Township Library in memory of Mrs. Maud Sabin.

One of giants of American history is William Tecumseh Sherman. In "The General Who Marched to Hell," Earl Miers takes us back to those terrible days in the Civil War when Union armies started their devastating march from Chattanooga to the Sea. In all the turmoil and agony of the campaign through Georgia, the fall of Atlanta and the sack of Columbia, the fiery red-headed General led in broadcasting the bitter seed of fratricidal war. Much of Mr. Miers material is drawn from the diaries and memoirs of participants, soldiers and civilian, Union and Confederate. "The General Who Marched to Hell" was given to the library in memory of Herman A. Radtke.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hildebrand are the parents of a daughter born June 10 at Libertyville Memorial hospital.

N. O. Nelsons, Indian Point Object of Surprise Gathering Honoring Wedding Anniversary

A group of relatives and friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Nelson on their forty-seventh wedding anniversary at a gathering at their home on Indian Point, Sunday, June 3rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson were among the first settlers of Indian Point, coming to their present home from Chicago more than 40 years ago. Mr. Nelson recalled various old time happenings at the get together. The village of Antioch was a full day trip by horse and wagon when he first moved here. He also saw Indian Point grow from a few homes in a very swampy area to a fine resort and cottage community.

Among the 42 guests present were Nelson's three daughters and their families: Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cunningham, Racine, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Anderson and sons, Jimmy, Jerry, Johnny, and Glen, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. LaFayette and daughter Sheryl Ann all of Kenosha, Wis.

Other guests were Mrs. Mattie Nelson, Wesley Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Nelson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Urban and family, Mrs. Mabel Frederick, Allan Franklin and Dorothy Frederick, Mrs. Bosmer, Mrs. Gunderson, Mrs. Clara Edwards and son Don, all of Chicago and Miss Viola Manvel of Indian Point.

Arlington Polo Game Sunday to Be Benefit For Area Boy Scouts

The Healy Farms Polo club, of Hinsdale, will be out to defeat the Arlington Farms club this coming Sunday at Arlington Farms, Buckley rd. at Rte. 63, and average a 10 to 6 defeat at the hands of Libertyville quartet last Sunday.

Although out-scored 10 to 6 the Healy club, featuring the slam-bang riding of Mike and Tom Healy, the Terrible Twins of Polo, carried the fight to Arlington throughout the torrid game.

Time and again miraculous defensive saves by Stan Taylor turned back scoring forays of the rugged Healy quartet.

Teaming with the Healy twins in the return match Sunday will be a third brother, Jim Healy, and probably Jerry Ford, a well-known veteran of Chicago polo who played brilliantly Sunday.

Capt. Len Bernard of Arlington Farms, is expected to field the same high-scoring quartet of Taylor, Johnny Casey, Billy Ylvisaker, and Bill Ferguson.

Sunday's game will be a benefit tilt for the Oak Plain Council of Boy Scouts.

Emmett Moroney, Deerfield township supervisor, has been invited to attend Sunday's game as a special guest of Arlington Farms.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Horton spent the week end at Dubuque, Iowa, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Smock.

Mrs. Effie Nelson, visited at the home of her sister Mrs. Frank Davis at Grayslake over the week end.

Members of the Lake Region Home Bureau Unit, will hold a meeting at the Scout Home Wednesday evening June 20th at 8 p.m.

Cause of Tidal Waves
Most earthquakes occur beneath the sea. While less destructive usually than those that hit populated land areas, they may wreak havoc through huge sea or so-called tidal waves that inundate coastal settlements.

Homemade Fences
A homemade electric fence controller is an invitation to disaster. The toll of dead animals each year is testimony to the fact that homemade controllers often turn into "booby traps."

SEQUIOTS
The Sequits won their opening game of the summer league play at Hebron Saturday, 7 to 4. Jack Pregonzer held the Hebronites to three hits.

Antioch sealed the game in the third when Judson's wildness filled the bases. He hit the first man up, walked the next two and after Buzz Haviland had driven in two runs with a single, he threw wild to the plate allowing more to score.

Hebron drew dangerously near in the fourth, however, when walks, a hit and an error allowed three scores.

Legislative Report

This column of Legislative comment is written especially for the Antioch News by Rep. Harvey Pearson, eighth district representative Republican, in the Illinois general assembly.

Several measures of special interest in the Eighth District went to the Illinois senate this week with house approval.

One series of bills consolidates dairy activities of the state under the department of agriculture. Objections to removing some of the inspection functions from the department of health were met by amendments to the bill. I supported it after learning it had the approval of Health Director Dr. Roland Cross.

Another measure establishes a new plumbers' license code for Illinois, badly needed for the protection of the public's health since the old law was thrown out by the Supreme Court last year.

(Editor's Note—The Antioch Village board doesn't agree with Pearson.) The house also passed and sent to the governor a bill that will allow underground storage of natural gas in northern Illinois. It gives utility companies the right of eminent domain for that purpose, and they estimate it will mean they can provide natural gas heat to another half million residents of our part of the state.

Representatives of coal mining districts fought the bill vigorously, but the legislature decided it was in the best interests of a majority of the population and wouldn't hurt the coal industry unduly.

We also put through a bill allowing county public welfare employees to come under civil service. I sponsored that measure for transfer of their merit system rating to civil service, and got a unanimous vote on the bill.

The house was heavily opposed, though, to a bill calling for real estate taxes on permanent house trailers. It was voted down by a wide margin. But we are going to continue our efforts to find way to get trailer occupants to pay their fair share of the cost of government in our schools.

Several other bills in the legislature deal with trailer camp licensing, and we hope to amend one of these so that permanent residents of those camps will contribute as other citizens do.

My request for a state veterinarian in McHenry county has had a favorable response, and the agriculture department is now planning to set up that job soon.

Sportsman's Park, Zion Site of Philly Trials For Young Ball Players

The Philadelphia Phillies' baseball tryout camp will be staged at Sportsman's Park in Zion on June 20, 21, and 22. Stuart D. Gentler, manager of the Zion Merchants, baseball club, and a scout for the Phillies, is responsible for bringing the camp to Zion this year.

The camp will be under the personal direction of Eddie Kraynick, chief scout of the midwest area and the man responsible for signing many of the present day stars of the Phillies, including Richie Ashburn and Bubba Church. He will be assisted by Jim Keown and Gentler. Keown is the scout for the Illinois and southern Wisconsin area; the northern Wisconsin and Minnesota area, and Gentler is scout for northern Illinois.

Any athletes between the ages of 17 and 22 who wish to tryout with the Phillies here next month have been advised to make application with Gentler by mail at 3102 Elisha Avenue, Zion, Illinois, or by phone at Zion 2151.

Gentler said that baseballs and bats will be provided, but the athletes themselves must provide their own gloves, spikes, and uniforms also, if possible. Suitable lodging facilities are being arranged by the Zion Chamber of Commerce, and special entertainment also is being made available for those who will be required to remain here for two or more days. Any players signed by the Phillies will have all expenses refunded. The school on each of these three days will operate from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., and all applicants must register before the scheduled hours for the camp.

Everyone's Duty

Every person and every community has a part to play in the civil defense program. Remoteness from places considered probable targets does not exempt any community from playing its part in the over-all program, since evacuee reception and care must be planned, and a support program organized.

The first Florida "tourist" was Juan Ponce de Leon. He discovered the area which is now the famous resort state, in 1513, while searching for the Fountain of Perpetual Youth. Basic Diet of China

Rice always has been the basic food of China. Symbolic of its importance, a ceremonial is said to have been established by the Chinese emperor of 2800 B.C., in which the Emperor sows the rice, himself, while the seeds of four other kinds of grain may be sown by the Princes of his family.

SHORT STORY

My Mistake

By Richard H. Wilkinson

MRS. Luther was very smug. "Of course, darling, I know how happy and thrilled you are at being married. Phil is a nice boy. Dear me, I remember when Alvin and I were first married. I was just the same."

3 Minute Flotlon

sighed. "The illusions of youth. Dear me."

Beth Franklin tried hard to maintain a role of gracious hostess. "Were your illusions shattered, Mrs. Luther?"

"Shattered?" Mrs. Luther laughed and suddenly looked wise. "Well, yes, I suppose they were. For I did have illusions about my husband, darling, just as you have about your Phil. And then—" Mrs. Luther's lips tightened—"he strayed."

"How dreadful."

"Not dreadful, darling—fortunate. Oh, my yes. You see, Dave, my husband, is not naturally a woman chaser. He was frightfully upset and shamed. He promised to do anything I'd only not leave him. To this day Dave is repentant. He'll do anything I ask. He is humble and grateful, and I declare I think I have the best husband in the world."

The orchestra swung into a foxtrot. Beside her, Tom Craig said: "My dance, Beth?"

"I suppose it was fortunate, wasn't it?"

Mrs. Luther leaned toward her young hostess. "So fortunate, my dear, that I wish others could benefit by the same experience. Your Phil is very handsome, and Gretchen Carter is very beautiful." She smiled. "Well, darling, I simply must be going."

Beth sat down at a window, cupped her chin in her hand and stared out at the rain. "Gretchen Carter is very beautiful." What had Mrs. Luther meant? Mrs. Luther was bitter and disillusioned. Poor Dave Luther. How dreadful it must be to be constantly under suspicion.

TWO weeks later the Hempton Country Club held its annual spring opening ball. Phil and Beth went with the Craigs. En route, Dorothy Craig said mischievously: "Keep your eye on that handsome husband of yours tonight, Beth. They tell me Gretchen Carter has bought the most seductive gown..."

Beth laughed. She strove for and maintained an attitude of indifference. Even later when she saw Gretchen Carter, blonde and gorgeous in a white, filmy gown that was truly seductive, she would not admit that what Mrs. Luther or Dorothy had said was affecting her peace of mind.

She danced the first dance with Phil and then, conscious of Mrs. Luther watching her from across the room, conscious of Dorothy Craig's mischievous glance, she deliberately ignored her husband.

It was quite by accident that toward the middle of the evening she saw Phil slip through the French doors out on to the terrace. Or was it accident? Certainly it wasn't accident that sent her eyes sweeping around the room till they found Gretchen Carter.

And then her heart stood still. Gretchen was moving toward the same French doors. The orchestra swung into a foxtrot. Beside her, Tom Craig said: "My dance, Beth?"

"No," she said. "No, Tom, I've got a headache... Excuse me, please." And she moved away, swiftly, blindly. Without consciously establishing a destination, she made her way out on to the terrace, stood there in the dim light.

Abruptly she saw them—two figures silhouetted against the sky at the far end of the terrace standing close together.

Reason left her. Logic fled. Seized by an uncontrollable fury, conscious only of one desire—the desire to wreak vengeance on this woman who had robbed her of her faith, she sped along the terrace, cried out in sudden anguish and flung herself toward the filmy white dress and startled face of Gretchen.

As from a great distance she heard a masculine exclamation, saw a face in the dim light—and suddenly it was as if an icy cloak had engulfed her and was holding her close. For the face of the man who had been standing with his arm about Gretchen Carter was that of Dave Luther.

Plastics Now Play Important Dual Role On Peace, War Front

Today plastics are playing a dual role, at home and in the accelerated military program.

Once again plastics have gone to our defense, but they are no longer regarded as a substitute for other materials as they were in World War II, according to The Society of the Plastics Industry.

During the past six years, peacetime applications have been developed from wartime uses, and today plastics are a rapidly expanding billion-dollar industry, with about thirty different kinds of plastics.

Familiar to every housewife are the various plastics concentrated in the kitchen—the colorful tableware, gay mats, tablecloths, mixing bowls, non-breakable boxes and flexible ice-cube trays.

Like Cinderella, plastics have also come out of the kitchen and entered all parts of the home.

Replacing the horsehair upholstery of the Victorian era are the smooth-surfaced fabrics which are designed attractively to harmonize with modern furniture.

Lumite woven saran is a good example of the versatility of newer plastics, for the same fiber which is woven into colorful fabrics is also made into window screens. Both have the same easy-to-clean, durable features.

Plastics are extremely versatile. Some are tough, and durable, while others are soft and pliable. They run the gamut from hard-wearing floor tiles to inflatable toys. Plastics include a whole group of widely differing materials, just as metals do. Not all plastics have the same attributes. Some are resistant to heat, some to alcohol and acids, some to soil and some to the sun.

And because of this versatility, the plastics which are familiar in the home are also being used in defense. Again the military applications vary from use in radar insulation and one-piece molded boats, to parts for jet fighters and shells.

Normal Baby Is Born To 24 Inch Circus Woman

LOUISIANA, Mo. — Lavandra Evans, 24 inch circus woman, gave birth here to a three-pound, twelve-ounce baby, said by doctors to be "normal in every respect."

The birth occurred at the Mineral Spring osteopathic hospital in a caesarean section performed by Dr. George L. Bilyea, an osteopath.

The infant, a boy, was premature.

Mrs. Evans' husband, Alva, is a dwarf of 4 feet 2 inches.

The physician reported that the infant arrived "in a favorable condition."

Batteries Last Longer When They Are Rotated

Rotate your flashlight batteries to make them last longer in the prospect of a more limited supply, suggests one of the Nation's largest battery producers.

Increasing the life of your batteries will become more and more important as a conservation measure now that battery production is being reduced sharply because of growing defense production.

Rotation gets ultimate service out of dry cell flashlight batteries which are in daily use, explains W. S. Allen, general manager of the Electrical Division of Olin Industries, Inc., New Haven, Conn.

Users of two-cell flashlights, for example, should have a minimum of three sets of batteries and should change them every day for effective rotation, Mr. Allen said. This, he explained, gives batteries an opportunity to recuperate and increase their life. But he cautioned that it should not be expected that batteries will completely recover original strength.

Batteries can be numbered for convenience in rotating them and those not in use should be stored in a glass container in a refrigerator, Mr. Allen informed. They should also be permitted to "thaw" for at least an hour, he said, because they do not emit maximum power while still cold.

Sally Rand Fizzles Out In Favor of Home Talent

COVENTRY, England—Fan dancer Sally Rand and six other American girls anxious to reenact the famed Lady Godiva's ride scheduled by this English town lost out in favor of home talent.

Ann Wrigg, 28, a curvesome brunette actress received the nod.

She gets a long flaxen wig and skin-tight, flesh-colored bra and panties for the role of the fair-haired Saxon lady who was said to have ridden naked on a white horse through the famed city in an attempt to induce her husband, Lord of Coventry, to reduce taxes.

A committee spokesman said that Miss Rand cabled an offer to reenact the ride down to the barest detail, but that she was never under consideration.

"It would have been good publicity for her," he said, "but it would have attracted to our pageant people of the wrong kind—Peeping Toms of the worst sort."

The committee said that it made the fan dancer's name public because her press agent had already publicized her offer. The names of the six other American girls were withheld.

Wood-Headed Characters

Wooden-headed characters just can't help it. They were born that way. A stubborn streak may be apparent in a child by the time he is 12 months old. If his parents do nothing to mold his personality into softer, more agreeable lines, he is usually stuck with this unpleasant trait for life.

Butter Sales Increase

Despite forebodings of dairymen that the repeal of Federal taxes and other restrictions on margarine would reduce butter consumption, sales have actually increased since the act went into effect on July 1, 1950.

Handling Milk

Milk is a finicky food, and you must observe the three C's to insure your family of complete safety. Keep the milk cool, covered, and clean. Milk, you know, is a good disease carrier, and unless careful storage conditions are observed the results can be somewhat undesirable.

Sweetness Minus Calories

Tiny pellets of saccharin turn the chemical trick to provide sweetness in desserts without including the high calories of sugar. The synthetic sweetener, actually a condiment or flavoring agent, like salt and pepper, contains no food value.

Colorado and Columbine

Colorado selected the white and lavender columbine as that state's official flower in 1899. According to local authorities, the flower was chosen because the blue signifies the Western skies, the white represents the snowy ranges of Colorado mountains, and the yellow, the gold that first attracted people there in 1858.

No Greater Humiliation

From ancient times devout Arabs and Jews alike have cherished beards in obedience to church laws. In their eyes there can be no greater humiliation than loss of a beard.

Proper Justice

A forester in Pierre, S. D., was awarded a Red Cross Certificate of Merit for applying the proper first aid to an accidental wound on his head, thus saving his own life.
